How to keep house comfortably in all kinds of weather will be the leading topic demonstrated in Jurgens' furniture store, Adams and Broad Streets, all next week, beginning Monday. Miss Potts, of New York, who was in charge of the electrical household utensils at the Jamestown Exposition will arrive here Saturday night or Sunday, and will have charge of the exhibition and demonstration for a week or two.

Economical and comfortable housekeeping will be demonstrated and taught by Miss Potts, who is a household economist of international reputation. Heard and Seen in Public Places

NTI-PRIMARY talk was revived in Richmond yesterday, the subject being freely discussed in political circles. Lion John Whithead of Norfolk, who is nearly all in favor of throwing over the present system. It is known that he took up the matter with at least one of the local delegates to the Roanoke convention, but from this particular man he failed to get any encouragement. The delegates in question will be present in the council of the party when the great State convocation meets in the Magic City in June, and being in favor of maintaining the primary, he frankly told Mr. Whithead so.

As a matter of fact, while the Richmond delegates are not instructed on any subject, they are nearly all in favor of the present system, though many of them would vote for some amendments with reference to the nomination of candidates for State officers.

Richmond is a primary city. The people here have been educated to the system, and it is almost certain that they will join in the opposition to any movement looking to its destruction. Local Democrats generally appear to be satisfied with the present system. In the adoption of which Richmond led the way. Although Mr. Whithead has declared his purpose to fight the primary at all costs, it is not known that he will join in the opposition to any movement looking to its destruction.

Dr. Lyon's PERFECT TOOTH POWDER

Cleanses, preserves and beautifies the teeth, and Purifies the breath. A superior dentifrice for people of refinement.

Established in 1866 by

like those in Richmond, they were elected to the primary and therefore not instructed. One of the leaders recently added to the primary forces at Roanoke is former State Senator J. Boyd Sears, of Mathews, who has always favored the system, and whose convention, held last Saturday, adopted a resolution instructing him to do all honorable means to prevent its undoing.

Mr. J. H. Ogburn, of South Hill, Mecklenburg county, is in Richmond on a business trip. When seen last night, he said that though the failure of the Bank of Mecklenburg did not affect the bank of his town, yet individual citizens in all parts of the county had felt the blow. He declared that everybody appeared anxious to see the report of the expert accountants, which it is understood has been practically completed, and is now in the hands of the State Corporation Commission.

Like nearly every other citizen who has been heard to express himself, Mr. Ogburn believes that the people's money, when put into State banks, should be more thoroughly safeguarded, and, he says, there should be a well-organized and vigorously conducted department of banking in conjunction with, and under the direction of, the State Corporation Commission, as is authorized by the Constitution.

So far as can be gathered from citizens of the county who have come from time to time to the Mecklenburg people who lost in the recent bank failures are taking the situation philosophically, though, of course, it is a disaster not only to individuals, but to the community at large. It is stated that the suspension of the two banks and the heavy failures of B. E. Coghill and the East Coast Lumber Company, of which he was president, are having a very depressing effect upon general business conditions in the county, which up to short time ago was on a great business boom.

Colonel Harry Hodges, of Norfolk, is in the city, and is stopping at Murphy's.

Prominent among the Virginia delegates to the National Convention of the National Association of the Deaf and Dumb, who are already on the ground, is Hon. J. M. Bauserman, of Woodstock, Commissioner of State Hospitals.

Mr. Bauserman is stopping at Murphy's, and was mingling with the incoming delegates last night and becoming acquainted with those here from a distance.

Sheriff W. M. Crouch, of Goochland, is in the city.

Mr. Wyndham B. Robertson, of Saltville, a prominent farmer and Democratic leader of Washington county, is in Richmond on a business trip, and is stopping at the City Hall on Monday to see his kinsman, City Engineer Charles E. Bolling. Mr. Robertson is a strong, personal and political friend of Hon. Henry C. Stuart, of Russell county, and he believes Mr. Stuart stands a splendid chance for the Democratic nomination for Governor next year.

"He will sweep things out our way," said Mr. Robertson, when seen by a Times-Dispatch man. "As well as I can judge, he will get nearly all the votes cast in the primary."

Mr. Robertson was apparently gratified to learn from a Richmond friend that the Southwest candidate is strong in this section. And the two agreed that his prospects seemed to be growing steadily brighter.

Mr. Robertson is a member of the board of visitors of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, at Blacksburg, and has a great interest in the affairs of the school. He will probably be in the city for several days.

JAMESTOWN PLAN MEETS WITH FAVOR

Drawing by Mr. Manning Indorsed by A. P. V. A. Yesterday—Other Matters.

At a called meeting of the general Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities held at noon yesterday in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society, a number of important matters were considered.

Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson presided, and the following ladies and gentlemen were present: Mrs. B. Lightfoot, Mrs. George R. Cannon, Mrs. J. H. Southall, Mrs. W. S. Murray, Mrs. S. H. Yonge, Mrs. N. R. Savage, Mrs. R. L. Christian, Mrs. D. A. Brown, Mrs. E. G. Leigh, Jr., Mrs. D. T. Williams, Mrs. W. C. Bentley, Mrs. N. C. Shelton, Mrs. W. P. Brock, Mrs. E. V. Valentine, Mrs. Robert Page Gray, Mrs. P. T. Boykin, Mrs. J. H. Timberlake, Misses Christian, Mrs. Charles B. Ball, Mrs. Henry Gibson, Miss Nannie Jones, Mrs. N. V. Randolph, Messrs. W. G. Standard and S. H. Longe.

Plan for Jamestown.

A ground plan, designed by Mr. Warren H. Manning for Jamestown, retaining the original simplicity of the scenery, was adopted. At the same time it was shown that the work may be carried on and completed by future generations, with every branch of the association taking part, and without disturbance to any buildings or memorials now standing. The corresponding secretary was requested to write a letter of thanks to Mr. Manning for his work.

It was decided to employ Miss Willie Palmer as attendant at souvenir house. The treasurer's report was read and approved and the treasurer authorized to pay bills presented by the corresponding secretary and also a note due on the Rising Sun Tavern at Fredericksburg.

Mrs. E. V. Valentine reported three new members: Mrs. Mann Page, of New Jersey; Miss Dandridge and Miss Elizabeth N. Neale. The chairman of the year book committee announced that it will contain full and satisfactory reports from the different branches.

Annual Excursion.

The committee, including Miss Betty Ellyson, Mrs. S. H. Yonge, Mrs. J. Caskey Cabell and Mrs. W. S. Murray, announced excellent prospects for a large crowd on the annual excursion to Jamestown on May 13th, when the memorial church will be dedicated.

Mrs. W. G. Standard was unanimously elected historian.

Mrs. Lightfoot, the retiring treasurer, gave a most interesting resume of the financial work and growth of the association during the time between 1894 and the closing of the year 1907. She said that her connection with the association in this special line of work must be severed.

Mrs. G. R. Cannon offered a resolution expressing appreciation of the work of Mrs. Lightfoot. It was heartily indorsed and ordered placed upon the minutes. Mrs. W. C. Bentley was elected treasurer.

Mrs. Wellford's Letter.

A letter was read from Mrs. J. S. Wellford, expressing her appreciation of a kind congratulatory resolution received by her from the acting president of the A. P. V. A. Mrs. Ellyson, on the occasion of her fiftieth wedding anniversary. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mrs. Ellyson for her faithful representation of the association.

The corresponding secretary was requested to answer a letter from Mrs. Pryor regarding the demolition of historic places.

A most acceptable gift, received with sincere thanks, was a check for $100, presented by Mrs. Joseph E. Willard.
